

WILSON MAY BE ASKED
TO HELP FIELDER WINGovernor's Supporters Badly
Worried Over Strength
Shown by Katzenbach.

WALKOVER NOT SURE NOW

With Primaries a Week Off It Is Felt That Battle in Democratic Ranks Will Hinge on Hudson County.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 14.—Frank S. Katzenbach, the anti-Wilson candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor at the coming primaries, has got the supporters of James P. Fielder, the Wilson candidate, badly worried. It is said that efforts will be made this week by Fielder's friends to have the President issue a strong statement in Mr. Fielder's behalf on the eve of the primaries.

A couple of weeks ago the Fielder men were predicting a walkover for their candidate, but since then Mr. Katzenbach has been campaigning in the state, and from the reports received he has made a good impression. The attitude of the Katzenbach men, too, has changed in the last fortnight.

The friends of the former Mayor of Trenton were anything but optimistic, but now they are asserting that Mr. Katzenbach is going to win by a safe majority.

Mr. Katzenbach's friends have good grounds for their belief, according to one of the shrewdest and best posted of the Democratic leaders of New Jersey, one who always keeps in close touch with what is going on.

According to this statesman, there isn't much doubt that the rank and file of the Democrats are for Mr. Katzenbach, but their leaders are against him. The reason given for this is that the leaders are seeking for federal patronage.

Mr. Katzenbach, according to one of his close friends, believes that he will come up to Hudson County with a majority, and that this county will be the deciding factor in the contest.

It is Mr. Fielder's own county, and if it were not for the troubled conditions in the Democratic ranks he would carry it by a tremendous majority. Mr. Katzenbach's friends, of course, do not expect to carry Hudson. What they are endeavoring to do is to keep the Fielder vote down, believing that if they can hold him to a majority of not more than 100 Mr. Katzenbach will win in the state.

They have taken advantage of the scrap among the Democrats, and while only a few of ex-Mayor Wittenberg's adherents have openly declared for him, it is understood in the ranks of the Wittenberg men all over Hudson County that they are to work and vote for Mr. Katzenbach on next Tuesday. A year or so ago the Wittenberg organization was the strongest factor in the Democratic ranks of Hudson County.

The defeat in the commission government election in Jersey City served to weaken it considerably, so that now its strength is problematical. But even in its weakened condition it will prove a somewhat important factor in the primary contest, and is sure to be of much help to Mr. Katzenbach.

Mr. Katzenbach is going to speak in Jersey City to-morrow night, and he is said to have prepared a rather spicy speech for Mr. Fielder's home city. The Katzenbach men expect a big crowd at this meeting, which, it is believed, will have a big influence one way or the other on the primary.

In order to counteract any effect the Katzenbach meeting to-morrow night may have on the primary, it is expected to have a Fielder meeting will be held on Tuesday night at the Jersey City High School, at which Judge John W. Newcott, who nominated Mr. Wilson at Baltimore, will speak in addition to Mr. Fielder.

The attitude of "Jim" Nugent in the contest has both of the candidates guessing. The Fielder men say he is for Katzenbach and the Katzenbach men assert he is for Fielder. Nugent isn't saying a word, but there isn't much doubt that he has a pretty strong sentiment for Mr. Katzenbach in Essex.

Among the Republicans the contest for the nomination is rather tame. There are plenty of candidates in the field, but for some reason or other things haven't got real lively. It looked for a time as though there would be something stirring when the anonymous attack on ex-Governor Stokes was sent around, but it seems to have subsided. There is a pretty good idea throughout the state as to who sent the anonymous pamphlets broadcast.

Ex-Representative Fowler is the only one of the four candidates who has conducted a speaking campaign. Senator Pierce has confined his efforts to the newspapers, in which every few days he publishes the public a statement, outlining his views on the five issues he has adopted. Equal taxation and grade crossings are the two principal planks in his platform.

Ex-Senator Everett Colby has started in to mix things up with Edmund B. Osborne, his opponent for the Progressive nomination for Governor at the coming primaries. For the last few weeks Mr. Osborne has been having things pretty much his own way, but now that Mr. Colby has cut loose it looks as though Mr. Osborne will hear a lot of things about himself.

Mr. Colby is going to show no quarter, it is said. He is going to call a spade a spade, and it is understood that which is an interesting collection of facts which he is going to drive home, especially in the efforts of Mr. Osborne to distort his views and to misstate facts in connection with his attitude on public questions.

2,000 TYPES OF SEA LIFE
R. W. Miner, of Museum Staff, Returns from Maine Coast.

R. W. Miner, of the staff of the American Museum of Natural History, has just brought back with him from the Passamaquoddy Bay region on the coast of Maine, two thousand specimens of sea life. Some time ago plans were made to study vertebrate and invertebrate life from British Guiana to Labrador. This work has already been completed, except for the stretch of coast between Florida and New York.

It will probably take the better part of ten years to carry out the plan in full, according to Mr. Miner. The sea life in Passamaquoddy Bay, he declared, was of great interest because of the tide there, which has a rise of 28 feet.
